

Hospitality Industry Veteran Joins Denver's Image Audiovisuals as National Accounts Manager

DENVER (March 5, 2014) – Denver-based Image Audiovisuals, one of the most recognized providers of audio-visual event services, has hired Rob Vicks, a 15-year-veteran of the hospitality industry, as its national accounts manager. Vicks has served as a meeting planner, account manager and sales executive for a number of AV companies and meeting planners.

Image Audiovisuals is one of the largest western U.S. providers of live event production, recording and streaming technologies, in-house hotel AV services and AV systems integration. Image Audiovisuals has produced thousands of live events for medical and pharmaceutical meetings, Fortune 500 companies, and political and association clients from New York to Los Angeles including every major market in the United States. Image Audiovisuals also serves as the in-house preferred provider at the Colorado Convention Center and has offices in Breckenridge and Copper Mountain, Colo.

“We are pleased to bring Rob aboard as we continue to expand our nationwide presence, providing innovative AV event services for corporate, association, medical and convention clients from coast-to-coast,” said Diana Mueller, chief executive officer of Image Audiovisuals.

“We provide audio visual expertise and technologies with a superior brand of customer service,” said Dave Mueller, president of Image Audiovisuals. “Complemented by our recent acquisition of Sound Images, our portfolio of services has expanded to include streaming and on-demand webcasting of large association events that incorporate large libraries of virtual meetings offering simplified access through custom apps. Combined with our live event production, set-designs, lighting and audio system engineering, and multimedia production capabilities, we deliver a tremendous amount of value to our clients.”

Prior to joining Image Audiovisuals, Vicks served as the director of Sales for an in-house production company at the Hilton San Diego Bayfront and at other AV companies. He has developed a unique approach by merging his experience in meeting planning and event management to help turn around and grow organizations while building strong hotel/vendor relationships.

As an InfoComm International “Diamond” Certified AudioVisual Solutions Provider (CAVSP), Image Audiovisuals complies with “10 Standards of Excellence” developed in collaboration with industry experts to emphasize the best practices of audiovisual businesses.
